BushwickBK.com: not TOTALLY random, just mostly BushwickBK.com: for fun me: good, I've been reading alleged accounts of human-alien conspiracies me: for inspiration me: I've gotten a lot of good ideas me: like developing antigravity devices me: I'm going to delegate that task to someone else, though BushwickBK.com: yeah like your greatgrandchildren me: also we have to make contact with the moon Nazis me: my genes aren't really geared towards developing actual things me: like fucking magnets! me: also I gave up drinking and drugs BushwickBK.com: DRINKING? me: to prove to my mom that my jackass nonsense really is just how I naturally act BushwickBK.com: LOL me: and I believe I have accomplished that BushwickBK.com: good show me: I mean, look at all that nonsense I just wrote to you apropos of nothing

BushwickBK.com: I keep laughing each time

BushwickBK.com: touche me: fucking uganda me: I was in Tanzania for a while which is next door me: one of our guys, an Irish ex-Navy, had nipple rings me: we go to some little bar/bodega thing me: and some African starts yelling usinge or whatever the swahili word was for homosexual me: I told him to shut the fuck up before he got his ass beaten up by several members of the Enlightenment BushwickBK.com: he was in a bar shirtless? me: although I didn't use the word "enlightenment" since it doesn't exist in Swahili me: it was an outside bar thingy me: like a shanty stand BushwickBK.com: ah, just like bali I imagine me: yeah, you know the thing I'm talking about, little wooden stand thingy BushwickBK.com: yeah

me: anyway me: keep thinking about what our end goal should be me: we have to have a core secret elite group with a hidden agenda me: in order to prove the existence of such things me: so think about what agenda we have me: other than despising everyone BushwickBK.com: hm BushwickBK.com: I always like money BushwickBK.com: just throwing that out there me: that's not even thinking big me: the money's practically on its wa me: way BushwickBK.com: yeah, but I'm satisfied with it me: Green is reading my manuscript right now me: anything, I'm thinking promotion of anarcho-technocratic space colonies me: or forcing the U.S. government to release all female marijuana offenders BushwickBK.com: haha me: or setting up a fund to investigate the private lives of more government offficials BushwickBK.com: this is just random shit me: all history is absurd, just go with the flow BushwickBK.com: yeah
